

EXHIBIT B

Defendants.

[illegible]

Case No. 19-cv-7 (CBA)(TAM)

WHEREAS, on August 14, 2023, the Court issued a Letter Rogatory to the Lebanese authorities, ECF No. 342;

WHEREAS, on November 7, 2023, Plaintiffs filed a Third Amended Complaint;

WHEREAS, on July 15, 2024, the Lebanese authorities denied the Court’s Letter Rogatory “at this time,” but indicated that, “[t]o the extent the ‘Court’ is able to provide the ‘Commission’ with additional details concerning money laundering or terrorism financing allegations that are specific to each alleged account, the ‘Commission’ would be willing to look into such allegations.” ECF No. 421-1 at 1, 6;

WHEREAS, each of the Defendants has sought, and in many cases obtained, waivers of Lebanese bank secrecy from individuals and entities alleged to have been customers or former customers of that Defendant, in accordance with the Court’s June 8, 2023 Order;

WHEREAS, on November 18, 2024, the Court held a telephonic discovery conference and ordered, among other things, that: (1) Defendants work to complete the waiver process and provide a comprehensive report to Plaintiffs and a status report to the Court by June 12, 2025, as to the scope of customer waivers that Defendants have obtained; and (2) parties to file a joint status report concerning a proposed modified production order by February 28, 2025;

WHEREAS, the parties have met and conferred concerning the scope of discovery;

WHEREAS, in January 2025, each of the Defendants has made at least an initial production of documents to Plaintiffs and has committed to continuing productions on an ongoing basis, pursuant to the Court’s June 8, 2023 Order;

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendants produce documents as set forth in the updated Annex A and Annex B, attached hereto.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: _____, 2025
Brooklyn, New York

Taryn A. Merkl
United States Magistrate Judge
Eastern District of New York

ANNEX A

Having overruled Defendants’ objections to Plaintiffs’ requests for the production of documents as they pertain to the documents listed below, including those based upon bank secrecy, for the time period between January 1, 2003, through December 31, 2011, Defendants are each ORDERED to produce, to the extent a person or entity listed below was a customer of the specified Defendant:

- (1) all electronically maintained transactional records for persons and entities that are identified below;
- (2) all electronically maintained communications concerning the persons and entities that are identified below;
- (3) all electronically maintained account opening records concerning persons and entities that are identified below;
- (4) all electronically maintained compliance records concerning persons and entities that are identified below; and
- (5) all paper or hard copy compliance records, other than account opening documents, for persons and entities that are identified below.
